Subject: RE: Request for Protective Order

---

The Ethics Commission through Chairperson Hur requests that the City respond to the Sheriff's request for a protective order. Please provide a response not to exceed five double-spaced pages no later than noon tomorrow, May 16. The Ethics Commission requests that the City not publicly disseminate the material at issue until the Commission rules on the Sheriff's request, which the Commission, through Chairperson Hur, intends to do promptly.

Subject: Re: Request for Protective Order

Dear Mr. Emblidge:

I have forwarded to you the relevant briefing, court order and correspondence that will allow you to evaluate the factual basis of Sheriff Mirkarimi's assertions. In the event that the Commission determines that it may have jurisdiction and/or a legal basis to issue a protective order directing the City to refuse to disclose a public record under the Sunshine Ordinance, the City requests an opportunity to respond. We will wait for your instructions.

I will monitor my email this evening, and we will do our best to respond in short order if requested.

Best regards,
Sherri Kaiser
