PART VII – CAMPAIGN CONSULTANT VOLUNTARY CODE OF CONDUCT

“I am familiar with all the laws, rules and regulations applicable to local campaigns;

I will not knowingly make false statements about the qualifications or positions of any candidate, or about the scope and effect of any measure;

I will not knowingly make false statements that any real or fictitious person supports or opposes a candidate or measure;

In the event that I make inadvertent false statements about the qualifications or positions of any candidate, or about the scope and effect of any measure, I will endeavor to provide corrected information in written form to the Ethics Commission within five days;

I will refrain from appealing to prejudice in the conduct of a campaign, and from conducting, managing or advising a campaign, which appeals to prejudice based on race, gender, ethnic background, religious affiliation or non-affiliation, sexual orientation, age, disability, or economic status;

I will refrain from seeking to obtain the support of or opposition to any candidate or measure by the use of financial inducements or by the use of threats or coercion;

I will refrain from influencing the submission of a measure to the San Francisco voters for the sole purpose of obtaining economic consideration for campaign consulting services;

I will refrain from seeking to evade, or participating in efforts of others to evade, the legal requirements in laws pertaining to political campaigns;

I will not knowingly participate in the preparation, dissemination, or broadcast of paid political advertising or campaign materials that contain false information; and

I will refrain from accepting clients whose interests are adverse to each other.”
