Exhibit A: Penalty Calculation

This matter consists of one violation of the SF C&GCC carrying a maximum total administrative penalty of $5,000. See SF Charter § C3.699-13(c), SF C&GCC § 1.170(c).

When determining penalties, the Ethics Commission considers all of the relevant circumstances surrounding the case, including but not limited to: (a) the severity of the violation; (b) the presence or absence of any intention to conceal, deceive, or mislead; (c) whether the violation was willful; (d) whether the violation was an isolated incident or part of a pattern; (e) whether the respondent has a prior record of violations of law; and (f) the degree to which the respondent cooperated with the investigation and demonstrated a willingness to remedy any violations. See Enforcement Reg. § 9(D).

However, in 2013, the Ethics Commission approved policies to establish fixed penalties for violations of certain provisions of SF C&GCC, including violations of SF C&GCC section 1.161. According to the policy, Staff is bound by the adopted policies regarding these violations until the Commission changes them. The Commission retains the authority to approve or reject the stipulation and settlement amounts.

According to the fixed penalty policy, if respondents present no exonerating evidence prior to the 14-day deadline, Staff will propose penalties to the Commission for its consideration according to the following schedule:

- $1,000 per violation will be proposed for a Stipulation signed prior to the issuance of the Probable Cause Report;
- $2,500 per violation will be proposed for a Stipulation signed after the issuance of the Probable Cause Report; and
- $4,000 per violation will be proposed for a Stipulation signed after the Commission makes a finding of probable cause.

The policy provides further that mitigating or aggravating factors may reduce or increase the penalties the schedule sets forth.

The policy states that the Commission will consider each mitigating or aggravating factor to determine how much weight to give to each. The following lists of mitigation and aggravation factors are not exhaustive:

Mitigation Factors:

- Absence of any intention to conceal, deceive, or mislead
- Violation was negligent or inadvertent
- Violation was isolated and not part of a pattern
- No prior record of violations of law with the Commission
- The degree to which the Respondent cooperated with the investigation
- The degree to which the Respondent demonstrated a willingness to remedy any violations (only applicable if a Respondent agrees to a stipulation prior to issuance of Probable Cause Report)

- Respondent filed all required disclosure statements and/or amendments within 14 days of initial contact by Enforcement staff
- A disclosure containing the required information appeared on a mass mailing, electioneering communication, or campaign advertisement, but the disclosure was in an incorrect font size.

Aggravation Factors:

- Evidence shows an intent to conceal, deceive, or mislead
- Violation was deliberate
- Violation was part of a pattern
- Prior record of violations of law with the Commission
- The degree to which the Respondent was uncooperative with the investigation
- The degree to which the Respondent failed to demonstrate a willingness to remedy any violations
- Respondent failed to file required disclosure statements and/or amendments within 14 days of initial contact by Enforcement staff

The Respondents agreed the advertisement violated the City's disclaimer requirements and stated that the violation was due to the Committee's reliance on an older disclaimer statement. In this matter, the proposed Stipulation was signed prior to the issuance of the Probable Cause Report. Therefore, the proposed penalty according to the policy is $1,000 per violation.

After considering all the facts of this case, the fixed penalty policy, and prior analogous cases, Ethics Commission Staff and the Respondents have agreed upon a penalty of $1,000 for one violation of SF C&GCC section 1.161(a).
