FORM SFEC-143:
REQUEST BY CANDIDATE FOR INDEPENDENT DETERMINATION OF FILING REQUIRED
UNDER SECTIONS 1.161(b), 162(b) and 1.163 OF S.F. CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM ORDINANCE
 (S.F. Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code § 1.143)

Instructions: Any candidate for Mayor or the Board of Supervisors seeking the same office as the candidate identified in the communication may object to the Executive Director's determination of whether a communication reported on filings required under sections 1.161, 1.162 or 1.163 actually supports or opposes a candidate or is neutral. Such request must be filed within one business day from the date the Executive Director makes a determination.

I hereby object to the Executive Director's determination that the following communication actually supports or opposes a candidate or is neutral:

Person/committee who filed the 496, 162 or 163 and the accompanying communication at issue
Form Number and Report Number (see page 1 of form)
Candidate(s) to whom communication relates
Brief description of communication
Type of expenditure as identified by filer of the form, i.e., independent expenditure, electioneering communication, or member communication.
State whether you think the communication is intended to (1) support; or (2) oppose the candidate(s); or (3) be neutral

Below, please set forth the reason why you believe that the communication supports or opposes a candidate or is neutral (if you need more space, indicate that below and attach a separate document setting forth your comments):

Please provide the following information:
Name of candidate who is submitting this form:
Candidate's FPPC ID No.

 Candidate's Signature
